

Mouth, Gum, Throat Problems

During cancer treatment, some patients may get painful sores in their mouth and throat. Other problems can also affect the mouth and throat that cause unwanted symptoms.

TRY THIS

Eat soft foods. Choose foods that are soft, wet, and easy to swallow.

Try liquid meals. Have smoothies, shakes, or other types of liquid meals.

CHECK THIS OUT

Visit the Springboard page on Mouth, Gum, and Throat Problems. <https://survivorship.cancer.gov/springboard/symptoms/mouth-gum-throat-problems>

Learn the signs of mouth and throat problems. <http://goo.gl/KJHhu>

Listen to this audio recording on managing mouth and throat pain during radiation therapy. <http://go.usa.gov/xxJsB>